

Mass Spectrometry in Food and Feed II

I. DIRINCK¹, L. VANHAECKE² and S. DE SAEGER³

¹ SENSTECH, Flemish Advice Centre for Sensory Quality of Food Products and Contact Materials, Technologiepark 3, BE-9052 Ghent, Belgium - inge.dirinck@senstech.be

² Ghent University, Department of Veterinary Public Health and Food Safety, Laboratory of Chemical Analysis, Salisburylaan 133, BE-9820 Merelbeke, Belgium - lynn.vanhaecke@ugent.be

³ Ghent University, Department of Bioanalysis, Laboratory of Food Analysis, Harelbekestraat 72, BE-9000 Ghent, Belgium - sarah.desaeger@ugent.be

Title in capitals (Times New Roman, bold, 14pt., left alignment).

After title leave 1 blank line.

Author(s) see example: first initials, then family name (Times New Roman, bold, 12 pt., left alignment). Underline presenting author.

After author(s) leave 1 blank line.

Affiliation(s) see example (Times New Roman, 12 pt., left alignment).

After affiliation(s) leave 2 blank lines.

Extended abstract (results included) in English (max. 1 page) (single spacing, Times New Roman, 12 pt., justified, margins: upper 2.5 cm, bottom 2.5 cm, left 2.5 cm, right 2.5 cm).

The abstract for a last minute poster presentation must contain the most important results of the presented research.

Send an electronic version of your abstract before 31 August 2015 (MS Word - name file: First author.doc (e.g. Dirinck.doc)) by e-mail (subject: MS in Food and Feed II - abstract) to voeding@kvcv.be

You will be notified of the acceptance of your abstract as soon as possible.

Please notice that the presenting author must be registered and must have paid the symposium fee before 31 August 2015. Abstracts of last minute poster presentations will not be published in the symposium book (only mentioned in the list of last minute posters).

The best poster presentation will be awarded (€ 125.00).